Client Counselling Competition

(03rd May 2024)

Client counselling is an art as much as it is a skill. It is the cornerstone of effective legal representation, requiring not only a deep understanding of the law but also empathy, communication prowess, and problem-solving abilities. In this competition, participants will have the opportunity to demonstrate their capacity to engage with clients, identify their needs, provide informed legal advice, and navigate complex legal scenarios with clarity and confidence.

The competition format emphasizes teamwork, as participants typically work in pairs to counsel clients. Collaboration is key as teams strategize, analyze legal issues, and develop comprehensive counselling strategies to address their clients' concerns. Judges evaluate not only the legal accuracy of the advice but also the participants' professionalism, interpersonal skills, and overall effectiveness in providing counsel.

Event Structure:

- ❖ Team Event- Each team comprises of 2 members
- ❖ The total number of teams in the competition is 12 selected on “first come first serve” basis.
- ❖ Registration fees: Rs. 800 per team

Patent Drafting Competition

(03rd May 2024)

In the dynamic landscape of technological advancement and intellectual property rights, patent drafting stands as the gateway to safeguarding innovation. It is a craft that demands not only legal expertise but also creativity, meticulous attention to detail, and strategic foresight. We celebrate the ingenuity and vision of the next generation of patent attorneys and innovators.

This competition serves as a crucible for aspiring patent professionals to demonstrate their prowess in crafting robust patent specifications that protect inventions with clarity and rigour. Participants will be challenged to navigate complex technical concepts, distil them into precise legal language, and anticipate potential challenges in the patent examination process.

Throughout this competition, participants will engage in simulated scenarios drawn from diverse fields of technology, ranging from biotechnology and software to mechanical engineering and beyond. Each scenario presents a unique set of challenges, testing participants' ability to understand the nuances of their inventions, analyze prior art, and draft claims that capture the essence of innovation while withstanding legal scrutiny.

This event serves as a platform for collaboration, learning, and professional development. Participants will have the opportunity to interact with seasoned patent practitioners, industry experts, and esteemed faculty advisors, gaining insights into the practical realities of patent practice and forging valuable connections that may shape their future careers.

Debate Competition

(College Students)

(04th May 2024)

The Nyay Nityam Debate Competition is more than just a contest; it is a celebration of the power of dialogue to shape opinions, challenge assumptions, and foster understanding. In an era marked by polarized discourse and ideological divisions, this competition serves as a beacon of rationality, inviting participants to engage in respectful and constructive debate on pressing issues of our time.

Debate, at its core, is an exercise in critical thinking, persuasive communication, and intellectual agility. It requires not only a mastery of facts and evidence but also the ability to articulate one's arguments cogently, refute opposing viewpoints effectively, and adapt to the ebb and flow of the conversation with grace and poise.

As participants, you will have the opportunity to delve into a wide array of topics spanning the realms of politics, ethics, social justice, economics, and beyond. Each round will present a new set of challenges, testing your ability to analyze complex issues, marshal compelling evidence, and present your case with conviction and clarity.

Topic of the Debate: Recognising Live-in-Relationship in the Indian Society

Pro Bono Report Presentation

(04th May 2024)

The Pro Bono Report Presentation stands as a beacon of hope and solidarity in our pursuit of a more just and equitable society. It is a testament to the transformative power of pro bono legal work in addressing systemic inequalities, empowering marginalized communities, and upholding the fundamental principles of fairness and dignity under the law.

At its core, pro bono legal service embodies the noblest ideals of the legal profession – to serve as champions of justice, guardians of rights, and voices for the voiceless. It is a cornerstone of our shared commitment to ensuring that the promise of equal justice under the law is not merely an aspiration but a lived reality for every individual, regardless of their socioeconomic status or background.

Throughout this competition, you will have the opportunity to present your pro bono projects, initiatives, or research findings to a panel of esteemed judges and your peers. Whether you have worked on legal aid clinics, community outreach programs, policy advocacy campaigns, or research projects, your presentations will highlight the innovative strategies, challenges overcome, and outcomes achieved through your pro bono endeavours.

The Pro Bono Report Presentation serves a greater purpose – to elevate the visibility of pro bono work within the legal profession, mobilize support for pro bono initiatives, and spark conversations about the systemic barriers to justice that persist in our society. It is a call to action for all stakeholders – legal practitioners, law students, policymakers, and community leaders – to redouble our efforts in the fight for equal justice for all.

May the Pro Bono Report Presentation Competition inspire us to continue our work in advancing the cause of justice and equality for generations to come.

Youth Parliament Competition (Kishor Sabha)

(04th - 05th May 2024)

In the hallowed halls of the Nyay Nityam Youth Parliament Competition, we witness the convergence of diverse perspectives, cultures, and experiences. It is a testament to the rich tapestry of human endeavour and the boundless potential of youth to drive positive change.

The Youth Parliament Competition (Kishor Sabha) serves as an invaluable platform for participants to enhance their diplomatic skills. Through role-playing scenarios and simulated diplomatic negotiations, delegates have the opportunity to develop negotiation tactics, negotiation, public speaking, and consensus-building abilities. These skills are essential for effective leadership and diplomacy, preparing participants for future careers in international relations, law, politics, and diplomacy.

Participating in the Youth Parliament (Kishor Sabha) provides delegates representing countries with a unique opportunity to deepen their understanding of global issues and international relations. Delegates research and represent countries' positions on a variety of topics, gaining insights into different cultures, perspectives, and political dynamics. This first-hand experience fosters global awareness, empathy, and appreciation for diversity, empowering delegates to become informed global citizens and advocates for positive change.

Beyond the competition, the Nyay Nityam Youth Parliament Competition serves a higher purpose – to inspire a new generation of leaders who are informed, engaged, and committed to making a positive impact on the world. It is a call to action for young people everywhere to raise their voices, seize the reins of leadership, and work together to build a more just, peaceful, and sustainable future for all.

With minds open and hearts united, let the debates begin!

Proposal for 'Amend the Constitution' Competition (05th May 2024)

The Proposal for 'Amend the Constitution' Competition is a testament to the enduring dynamism of our democratic institutions and the vital role of citizen engagement in shaping the course of governance. It provides a platform for participants to delve into the foundational document of our nation, explore its strengths and shortcomings, and propose meaningful amendments that reflect the evolving needs and values of our society.

At its core, this competition embodies the spirit of constitutionalism – the belief that government power should be limited, accountable, and subject to the rule of law. It invites participants to engage in rigorous research, critical analysis, and thoughtful deliberation as they consider the potential impact of proposed amendments on individual rights, governmental structure, and the social contract that binds us together as a nation.

Rules and Procedures:

1. Present your proposals to a panel of esteemed judges and your peers, defending your ideas with clarity, conviction, and persuasive argumentation.
2. Open house discussion on each proposal received.
3. Following all the discussions, voting may take place (subject to the discretion of the Jury) to pass/fail the motion for the proposed amendment.
4. Scoring will be marked based on the substance and status (pass/fail) of the amendment.

Essential elements of the proposed Amendment:

1. Bill No.: It should be 'Bill No. XXXX of 2024' (to be placed at the Top-Right Corner of the page)
2. Title:th Constitutional Amendment Bill, 2024
3. Introductory Format must be present.
4. Chapters (1st Chapter should be Preliminary)
5. Statement of Objectives and Reasons (at the last page)
6. Numberings of lines to be mentioned after every 5th line.
7. Marginals notes must be provided.

Event Structure: Hybrid Mode

- ❖ Team Event: Each team comprising of 2 members.
- ❖ Stage 1: The proposed amendment in written form (Docx and PDF) to be submitted by 30th April 2024 on nyaynityamcupb@gmail.com
